1.3.286
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, December 11, 2005 11:15am in coffeeshop
www.unc.bz

1. Who do you want Me and what for? Gloriousness of you, or Me? And for what shall I say thank you, that you come unto Me for you, or for Me, to be with Me only and hear My softness and notwithstanding cataclysmic of Me, who can you see being? What can you know, see? What can you see that you know, that you know not and still seeing, knowing, and not knowing, seeing notwithstanding?

2. Who can figure Me out not; but surrender, embrace, embracing, becoming; displaying, personifying My who love Me. I love you.

3. Into My chambers, one. Thank you. Giving yourself to Me. Thank you. Constantly, thank you. Surrenderously, thank you. Surrendering all thought, thank you. Wanting, seeking, being only Mine. I love you.

4. Who can see My heart, be My word, and issue My commands not; but hand people bread of Me, bread of life, bread of heaven, being all three to all three who see, grasp, that they are. I love you. I give you Me. Not for themselves, but for one. Thank you all. I love you.

5. All changes in a moment, less, and now all is ready. My train filling My temple and the glory thereof is great, magnificent and magnitude all feel. I love you.

6. There is peace, in Me. There is one, of Me.
You are one, all who choose/surrender, and one become, resolving in to chorus the world sees. See.

7. What can you see, hear, and what will you let yourself surrender into, or do you have one? What are you and who is your body and what is Christmas about, Me or you, Me or Him, or Him being you being Him; and what is your example? Me. I love you.

8. I am at the center and come forth in gloriousness of heretofore not seen; unseen and undiscovered not for I have made Myself known eternally, and I do, have. And there is only one. Thank you. Amen. See. That's why/how matter does not matter. See. Thank you.

9. And who can be still long enough to hear Me, be Me, resolving-not into theirs, but Mine? One. I love you.

10. It all changes. The birth now is. Thank you.
I bless you. Bless-ed are. Thank you.
The one child not, the one.
You Me and Me-ing all others who surrender. Thank you. Amen.

11. Glory full day of My glory upon/in/throughout you My body, one. Act as one, see; not in performance, but in sincerity of surrender perfect; slain. Thank you.

Me.